

1 After the unit has been charged, connect the beam probe to the unit.

2 Attach a piece of 3M tape to the beam probe.

3 Attach the beam probe two fingers below the navel whilst you are stood up. Attach the second beam probe two fingers below the first.

4 Press the button to turn the unit on. The unit will beep and the light will blink green.

When charging starts the light will blink red. When the unit is charged or in use the light is green.